ADULT EDUCATION

Index to Vol. 42 May 1969—January 1970

Pages 1–72 are in the May number; 73–136 in July; 137–208 in September; 209–272 in November and 273–344 in January.

(C) Correspondence; (I) Information and events.

ADMINISTRATION: Lighten our depression (C), 320; Secure or provide? 279

ARTS: Facilities for the arts, 284; Why art? 293

Ashby, Robert F.: The Open University—a librarian's view, 155

Baynes, Peter A., with David G. Smith: Spanish on local radio—Leicestershire's experiment, 226

Bestall, J. M.: What can museums offer? 315

Booth, D. J., and T. F. Evans: Income tax: advice to part-time tutors (I), 253

British Standard Time (C), 320

BROADCASTING: An experiment in local radio, 98; Residence, broadcasting and the Open University (C), 48; Spanish on local radio—Leicestershire's experiment, 226; A threat to local radio (C), 49; Toward the Open University (I), 324

Bromley, London Borough of (Education Dept): Classes for the elderly in Bromley (I), 328

Brown, A. E.: System building for churches (I), 110

Brown, George W.: After Plowden (I), 53

Buchanan, Derek: Billingham's Forum and its users (I), 111; Handicrafts outdated? (I), 327; Local centres for the Open University (I), 114; More help for Jude, 165; Wisconsin's multi-media courses (I), 250

Burrow, T. W., with Michael Somerton, Noël Williams and Terry Whittingham: An experiment in local radio, 98

Burrow, T. W., with T. G. Whittingham: Industry—the role of overseas courses (I), 174

Butler, C. E.: Lighten our depression (C), 320

Butler, J. C.: The dichotomy in adult education (C), 237; Regional history classes (I), 247

Chaplin, Sylvia: Enquiry—mature thoughts from a student, 18

Charnley, Alan: Teaching at Hillcroft (C), 167; Toward the Open University (I), 324

Childs, Alan: Facilities for the arts, 284

Cockerill, Janet: Teaching at Hillcroft, 84; (C), 167

COMMUNITY CENTRES: Billingham's Forum and its users (I), 111; Kegworth saga II, 151

Community school project: After Plowden (I), 53

Corfield, Tony: Service Centre for Social Studies—a new venture for the WEA (I), 58

CORRESPONDENCE EDUCATION: Adult education at sea, 143; Toward the Open University (I), 324; Wisconsin's multi-media courses (I), 250

COUNSELLING: Needs to be met, 29

COURSES AND CONFERENCES: DES short course on further education, 323; ECA—the public image of adult education, 243; German universities in adult education, 323; Local studies for alcoholics, 170; London Continuative Teachers' Association annual conference, 52; London tutorial classes' annual Saturday school, 53; Navex-69, 242; NFWI annual general meeting, 109; Not the home . . . (a review of women's conferences, spring 1969), 107; NUTG national council meeting, 109; Residential Colleges Committee annual meeting, 108; Science for Townswomen, 170; Society of Industrial Tutors' inaugural conference, 244; The Sudan conference 45; Welsh tutors' conference, 171

* Vol. 42, No. 6—the March 1970 issue—will consist entirely of the report of the enquiry into the adequacy of provision for adult education which the Institute undertook in 1966-68.

CULTURE: Exhibition in a museum, 93; Facilities for the arts, 284; What can museums offer? 315; Why art? 293

DEVELOPMENTS: After Plowden, 53; Billingham's Forum and its users, 111; The citizen in society, 245; Classes for the elderly in Bromley, 328; Cookery for elderly gentlemen, 114; Hammersmith's day centres for the mentally handicapped, 249; Handicrafts outdated? 327; An industrial experiment at Bath, 56; Industry—the role of overseas courses, 174; Local centres for the Open University, 114; New institute for adult literacy methods in Teheran, 250; Open-plan grouped arts course, 172; Psychiatric teaching, 176; Regional history classes, 247; Self-help in Cambridge—the 'fish' scheme, 326; Service Centre for Social Studies—a new venture for the WEA, 58; System building for churches, 110; Toward the Open University, 324; Training within industry now, 181; Wisconsin's multi-media courses, 250; Writing classes for unpublished authors, 179

ENQUIRY: Enquiry—first thoughts from the field, 7; Mature thoughts from a student, 18; The Russell Committee (C), 48
Evans, J. Melville: Exhibition in a museum, 93
Evans, T. F., with D. J. Booth: Income tax—advice to part-time tutors (I), 253
Ewing, Vera: Science for Townswomen (I), 170

Fanner, Philip: Training pre-school playgroup organisers, 297
Fielden, Derrick: Poetry and creative writing (C), 238
FINANCE: Secure or provide? 279; Self-supporting classes—a variation, 148
FRANCE: Current problems and prospects, 78
'Fish' scheme in Cambridge (I), 326
Flower arrangement teachers' association launched (I), 333

Giardelli, Arthur: Why art? 293

HANDICAPPED PERSONS: Hammersmith's day centres for the mentally handicapped (I), 249
Harper, F. A.: British Standard Time (C), 321
Harris, W. J. A.: The Sudan conference, 45
Hope, Ronald: Adult education at sea, 143
Hopkins, Philip: The return of Jude, 90
Howitt, Annamaria: FELTA—an association for language teachers (I), 255
Hoyland, John D.: Advertising—research into media, costs and effectiveness (C), 168
Hudson, Kenneth: An industrial experiment at Bath (I), 56.
Hutchinson, E. M.: Commentary, 3, 75, 139, 211, 275; Enquiry—first thoughts from the field, 7
Hutchinson, Enid: Counselling—needs to be met, 29

INDUSTRIAL TRAINING: Industry—the role of overseas courses (I), 174; An industrial experiment at Bath (I), 56; Training within industry now (I), 181
Iredale, Roger O.: An approach to poetry, 103; (C), 238

Jenkins, P. R.: Open-plan grouped arts course (I), 172
Joselin, Arnold G.: Pioneering in adult education, 215

Kegworth saga II, 151

LANGUAGES: Spanish on local radio—Leicestershire's experiment, 226
Lapwood, Nancy H.: Self-help in Cambridge—the 'fish' scheme (I), 326
Lawton, L. G.: Cookery for elderly gentlemen (I), 113
L.E.A. PROVISION: The citizen in society (I), 245; Classes for the elderly in Bromley (I), 328; Cookery for elderly gentlemen (I), 114; Open-plan grouped arts course (I), 172; Psychiatric teaching (I), 176; Regional history classes (I), 247; Spanish on local radio—Leicestershire's experiment, 226

BOOKS REVIEWED—EDUCATIONAL TOPICS ONLY

Title and Author	Reviewer	Page No.
Adult education and development, by Edna Wilderspin	Derek Buchanan	340
Adult education for industrial workers, by Michael Barratt Brown	E. R. L. Lewis	337
Adult education in Hungary, by G. Csoma, J. Fekete and K. Hercegi	J. Kulich	261
Blond's encyclopaedia of education, edited by Edward Blishen	E. M. Hutchinson	132
Challenge and response—WEA East Midland District, 1919-69, by A. John Allaway	W. E. Styler	259
The challenge of change to the adult trainee, by D. V. Newsham	F. le Gros Clark	185
Correspondence education through a national newspaper: an experiment in Uganda, by R. F. Clarke	Ron Glatter	336
The influence of education and age on participation in rural adult education, by D. S. Goard and G. Dickinson	K. A. Percy	129
In-service training: an induction and re-orientation course for part-time teachers in adult education (London Borough of Ealing)	Derek Buchanan	132
Life-long integrated education (Indian Adult Education Association)	C. D. Legge	125
Lifelong learning: a symposium on continuing education, edited by F. W. Jessup	J. A. Simpson	124
Mass communication research and adult education, by J. D. Halloran	John Scupham	126
Museums and adult education, by Hans Zetterberg	Derek Buchanan	266
Planning education for African development, by Richard Jolly	E. K. Townsend Coles	338
The provincial folk school in Finland, by Heikki Leskinen	Jindra Kulich	130
The provision of short courses (Further Education Staff College Special Paper)	E. M. Hutchinson	133
A report on the use of costing and other financial techniques in technical colleges (Department of Education and Science)	Andrew Hutchinson	68
Seeds of promise, by Knute Buttedahl	W. E. Styler	189
Teaching on equal terms, edited by Jennifer Rogers	C. D. Legge	335

Smith, David G., and Peter A. Baynes: Spanish on local radio—Leicestershire's experiment, 226
SOCIAL STUDIES: Service Centre for Social Studies—a new venture for the WEA (I), 58
SOCIETY AND EDUCATION: Adult education at sea, 143; The citizen in society (I), 245; More help for Jude, 165; Pioneering in adult education, 215; Psychiatric teaching (I), 176; Self-help in Cambridge—the 'fish' scheme (I), 326; Training pre-school playgroup leaders, 297
SOCIOLOGY OF ADULT EDUCATION: The dichotomy in adult education (C), 237; Education for social adjustment, 25; Enquiry—mature thoughts from a student, 18; Lighten our depression (C), 320
Stoddart, J. M.: Part-time education—problem or opportunity? 231
Stott, P. Louis B.: Secure or provide? 279
STUDENTS: Counselling—needs to be met, 29; The return of Jude, 90
SUDAN: The Sudan conference, 45
SWEDEN: Trade union education (I), 331

TEACHING METHODS: An approach to poetry, 103; Open-plan grouped arts course (I), 172; Poetry and creative writing (C), 238; Teaching at Hillcroft, 84; (C), 147; Writing classes for unpublished authors (I), 179
TELEVISION: Wisconsin's multimedia courses (I), 250
Thompson, Brian: Writing classes for unpublished authors (I), 179
Titmus, C. J.: France—current problems and prospects, 78
Trade union education in Sweden (I), 331
TRAINING: A singular view of full-time training, 39; Training pre-school playgroup leaders, 297
Turnbull-Edmunds, P. B.: Psychiatric teaching (I), 176
TUTORS AND TEACHERS: FELTA—an association for language teachers (I), 255; Flower arrangement teachers' association launched (I), 333; Income-tax—advice to part-time tutors (I), 253

UGANDA: Liberal education in a developing country, 311
UNIVERSITIES AND ADULT EDUCATION: An experiment in local radio, 98; Industry—the role of overseas courses (I), 174; Part-time education—problem or opportunity? 231; System building for churches (I), 110; Services education and the universities, 160

W.E.A.: Service Centre for Social Studies—a new venture for the WEA (I), 58
Whipp, M. M.: Lancashire's new approach to dress classes (I), 120
Whittingham, T. G., and T. W. Burrow: Industry—the role of overseas courses (I), 174
Williams, W. T.: Liberal education in a developing country, 311

Lee, Marc, and G. F. Matthews: Services education and the universities, 160
Leighton, Brian: Self-supporting classes—a variation, 148; A singular view of full-time training, 39
Leitner, H.: New institute for adult literacy methods in Teheran, 250
Lewis, G. I.: Local studies for alcoholics (I), 170; Welsh tutors' conference (I), 171
LIBERAL EDUCATION: Liberal education in a developing country, 311
LIBRARIES: The Open University—a librarian's view, 155
LITERACY: New institute for adult literacy methods in Teheran (I), 250
LOCAL AUTHORITIES: The dichotomy in adult education (C), 237; Exhibition in a museum, 93; Lancashire's new approach to dress classes (I), 120; Secure or provide? 279; Self-supporting classes—a variation, 148

MacDermott, T. P.: Trade union education in Sweden (I), 331
Matthews, G. F., with Marc Lee: Services education and the universities, 160
More help for Jude, 165
MUSEUMS: What can museums offer? 315

NEWS: Art centre in a pub, 62; Award for Syracuse, 252; Awards for post-graduate courses, 115; BACIE's Golden Jubilee appeal, 118; BBC films for hire, 118; Certificate course in environmental science, 182; Day-release classes for shop stewards on the increase, 252; Diploma in Adult Education for Glasgow, 119; Educational visit to Holland, 330; Independence for NOPWC, 252; Library purchases, 63; London House Purchase Advisory Service, 117; Masters of leisure, 182; New series of books about adult education, 116; New USA monthly index of educational literature, 119; NUTG to produce 'The Miracle', 61; Part-time degree course for Hull, 329; Peter Manniche Foundation appeal, 329; Training the trainers, 183; Working Men's College finances expansion, 251

OPEN UNIVERSITY: Local centres for the Open University (I), 114; The Open University—a librarian's view, 155; Residence, broadcasting and the Open University (C), 48; Toward the Open University (I), 324

Paterson, W.: Education for social adjustment, 25
Pioneering in adult education, 215
Pre-school playgroup organisers, training of, 297
PROFESSIONAL AND PERSONAL: ATAE South-East Scotland Branch meeting, 122; Course on adult education at Oxford, 63; Flower arrangement teachers' association launched, 333; Lancashire's new approach to dress classes, 120; FELTA—an association for language teachers, 255; Income-tax—advice to part-time tutors, 253; Trade union education in Sweden, 331; The Tutors' Association in Scotland, 63; People, 64, 123, 184, 257, 333
PROVISION (see also L.E.A. PROVISION): An industrial experiment at Bath (I), 56; Art centre in a pub (I), 62
Psychiatric teaching (I), 176
PUBLICITY METHODS: Advertising—research into media, costs and effectiveness (C), 168; More on publicity, 304

Rayer, F. H.: Kegworth saga II, 151
RESIDENTIAL COLLEGES, LONG-TERM: Teaching at Hillcroft, 84; (C), 147; The return of Jude, 90
RUSSELL COMMITTEE: Enquiry—first thoughts from the field, 7; Enquiry—mature thoughts from a student, 18; The Russell Committee (C), 48

Scotchmoor, F. H.: The citizen in society (I), 245
Searle-Jordan, V. T.: Hammersmith's day centres for the mentally handicapped (I), 249
Selby, David: More on publicity, 304
SERVICES EDUCATION: Services education and the universities, 160
S.E.S. AND THE COLLEGE OF THE SEA: Adult education at sea, 143